III. DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall have the following authority and responsibilities:

A. Board Candidates and Nominees

The Committee may, if it deems appropriate, establish procedures to be followed by stockholders in submitting recommendations for candidates to the Board.

To recommend to the Board the director nominees for election by the stockholders or appointment by the Board (except where a third party has the legal right to nominate such directors), as the case may be, pursuant to the Corporation’s Bylaws, which recommendations shall be consistent with the Board’s criteria for selecting new directors. Such criteria include the possession of such knowledge, experience, skills, expertise and diversity so as to enhance the Board’s ability to manage and direct the affairs and business of the Corporation, including, when applicable, to enhance the ability of committees of the Board to fulfill their duties and/or to satisfy any independence requirements imposed by law, regulation or listing requirements of the NYSE.

To review the suitability for continued service as a director of each member of the Board when his or her term expires and when he or she has a significant change in status, including but not limited to an employment change, and to recommend whether or not the director should be re-nominated.

B. Board Composition and Procedures

To review annually with the Board the composition of the Board as a whole and to recommend, if necessary, measures to be taken so that the Board reflects the appropriate balance of knowledge, experience, skills, expertise and diversity required for the Board as a whole and contains at least the minimum number of independent directors required by the NYSE.

To review periodically the size of the Board and to recommend to the Board any appropriate changes.

To make recommendations on the frequency and structure of meetings of the Board.

To monitor the function of the committees of the Board and make recommendations for any changes, including the creation and elimination of committees.

To review periodically committee assignments and the policy with respect to the rotation of committee memberships and/or chairpersonships and to report any recommendations to the Board.

To recommend that the Board establish such special committees as may be desirable or necessary from time to time in order to address ethical, legal or other matters that may arise. The Committee's power to make such a recommendation under this charter shall be without prejudice to the right of any other committee of the Board, or any individual director, to make such a recommendation at any time.

D. Corporate Governance

To develop and review periodically the corporate governance principles adopted by the Board to assure that they are appropriate for the Corporation and comply with the requirements of the NYSE and to recommend any desirable changes to the Board.

The Committee shall be responsible for overseeing the periodic review and evaluation of the plan for the succession to the position of the Chief Executive Officer.

To consider any other corporate governance issues that will arise from time to time and to develop appropriate recommendations for the Board.

E. Evaluation of the Board and Management

The Committee shall be responsible for overseeing the evaluation of the Board as a whole and shall evaluate and report to the Board on the performance and effectiveness of the Board. The Committee shall establish procedures to allow it to exercise this oversight function.

The Committee may conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities and may retain, at the Corporation's expense, such independent counsel or other advisers as it deems necessary. The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain or terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates, including sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms, such fees to be borne by the Corporation.

V. MEETINGS AND PROCEDURES OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall fix its own rules of procedure, which shall be consistent with the Corporation's charter and Bylaws and this charter. The Board shall designate one member of the Committee as its Chairperson. The Committee shall meet as provided by its rules and as frequently as the Chairperson of the Committee, in consultation with the other members of the Committee, deems necessary or desirable. The Chairperson of the Committee or at least two of the members of the Committee may call a special meeting of the Committee. A majority of the members of the Committee present in person, or by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time, shall constitute a quorum.

The Committee may request that any directors, officers or employees of the Corporation, or other persons whose advice and counsel are sought by the Committee, attend any meeting of the Committee to provide such pertinent information as the Committee requests.

Following each of its meetings, the Committee shall deliver a report, which may be oral, on the meeting to the Board, including a description of all actions taken by the Committee at the meeting. The Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings, which minutes shall be maintained with the books and records of the Corporation.

The Committee may take any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Committee without a meeting; if consent in writing to such action is signed by each member of the Committee and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Committee.

VI. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

The Committee may form subcommittees for any purpose that the Committee deems appropriate and may delegate to such subcommittees such power and authority as the Committee deems appropriate; provided, however, that no subcommittee shall consist of fewer than two members; and provided further that the Committee shall not delegate to a subcommittee any power or authority required by any law, regulation or listing standard to be exercised by the Committee as a whole.
