Fitch Upgrades Arbor's Commercial Special Servicer Rating

3 Feb 2026

Fitch upgraded Arbor Multifamily Lending, LLC's Commercial Special Servicer Rating to CSS2-, and assigned a Stable Rating Outlook.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- The global ratings agency cited Arbor's recent technological enhancements to its core asset management system, its experienced team of executives and asset managers, and its demonstrated proficiency in resolving primarily GSE CRE loans in its January 30, 2026 announcement.

Growing Financial Partnerships

"I'm very proud that Fitch, one of the world's leading ratings agencies, upgraded Arbor's Commercial Special Servicer Rating," said Danny van der Reis, Arbor's EVP, Servicing and Asset Management. "Our ongoing technological improvements and advances, which support the daily, diligent work of our team, have enhanced Arbor's best-in-class special and primary servicing, solidifying our position as an industry-leading multifamily lender and servicer."

Fitch noted that Arbor's internal control environment includes well-defined policies and procedures, segregation of duties for cash-handling servicing functions, as well as exception reporting and management oversight. Arbor's dedicated and independent quality control team, responsible for quarterly internal compliance reviews, compared favorably among Fitch-rated servicers.

Arbor's Commercial Primary Servicer Rating was affirmed at CPS2+, Outlook Stable, a reflection of Arbor's strong expertise in multifamily and agency primary servicing; its seasoned and experienced management and staff; a continued dedication to technology; enhancements to workflows tools; improvements to its proprietary borrower portal; and its comprehensive governance framework that has contributed to the absence of material compliance external audit findings.
